

Dear FCC,

I am writing about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, they should not be allowed to use the public airwaves for their private political/economic agenda that is not in the public's interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you,
